Food:	Serrano-ham-based tapas, fatty fish such as salmon, or grilled pork chops.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2019 ~ 92 Points. "Sweet berries with some fresh flowers on the nose. It’s medium-bodied with firm, silky tannins and a delicious finish. Lightly citrusy in the aftertaste. Drink now." - James Suckling, Oct/2021

2019 ~ "Creamy flavors of blackberry coulis, wild sage, mocha and fresh earth are layered with lightly chewy tannins in this balanced, easy-drinking red. Juicy, spiced finish. Drink now through 2025." - Wine Spectator, Jul/2022

OTHER INFO

Mencia grapes are selected from vineyards located in different areas of Bierzo where careful vine-growing, the right altitude and good exposure enable perfect ripening of the grapes. The vineyards are planted in different soil-types, most of which are either made up of fragmented slate (such as in Campo and Molinaseca) or clay (as in Valtuille and Villadecanes).
