TASTING NOTES

Colour:	Intense ruby red.
Aroma:	Bouquet of ripe red berry fruits.
Taste:	Well balanced with good structure and length, and intense berry fruit and spice flavours.
Food:	Very food friendly, this pairs well with grilled meats and robust pasta dishes.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2020 ~ 90 Points. "The powerfully umami nose draws balance from a strawberry undertone and a dash of salt and pepper. That combination of earthiness, salt and strawberries continues on the palate, with an acidic fizziness adding some playfulness." - Wine Enthusiast, Apr/2024

2020 ~ "Tommasi has 110 years experience growing Cabernet Sauvignon in Toscana. The tradition continues here in Maremma, in Toscana's southwest corner. This 60/40 mix of Sangiovese / Cabernet Sauvignon comes off the Pitigliano estate, with soils rich in calcium carbonate tufa. The wine is stainless fermented and aged 1 year in large 65hL Slavonian casks. Ample sticky and blocky tannins frame ripe cherry, sarsaparilla, and perfumed raspberry across the medium bodied palate. Rustic-hewn, this would be best with braised meats / root veg." - Treve Ring - Gismondi on Wine, Feb/2024

OTHER INFO

Poggio al Tufo is a 66-hectare estate in the south of Tuscany, owned by the Tommasi family, one of the world's foremost Amarone producers, founded in 1902. The wine is grown in the Rompicollo vineyard, which has southern exposure, volcanic soils and is densely-planted to 6,500 vines per hectare.
