AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2015 ~ "Notes of ripe stone fruit and white flowers are followed by a palate endowed with greater amplitude, texture and concentration than Jadot's Macon-Villages. More serious stuff, and expressive already." - Decanter Magazine, Dec/2016

OTHER INFO

The small village of Lugny is one of the most famous areas in the Mâconnais producing exceptional white wines (made from 100% Chardonnay grapes). The vineyards are located on the "Mont du Mâconnais" where the limestone subsoil is ideal for growing the Chardonnay grapes (brown calcic soils). The yields are low in order for the grapes to reveal the nuances of each terroir.
