AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2021 ~ 91 Points. "A nicely balanced, fruity red with ripe currant and berry character on the nose and palate. Hints of herbs to the fruit. Medium-bodied with fine, gently firm tannins and finish. Drink now." - James Suckling, May/2024

2021 ~ 90 Points. "The 2021 Cabernet Sauvignon is done in a style that exalts freshness and aromatics more than power. As such, it will especially appeal to readers looking for something other than the classic opulent Bolgheri red. Crushed flowers, mint, spice, tobacco, incense and dried flowers all take shape in this effortless, mid-weight offering...." - Antonio Galloni's Vinous, Dec/2024

OTHER INFO

The "Poggio al Tufo" estate vineyard, owned by the Tommasi family since 1997, comprises 66 hectares (163 acres) in Pitigliano, the heart of the "Maremma Toscana" zone located in southwestern Tuscany. The grapes are picked when slightly overripe. Traditional red wine vinification, with maceration for 12 days. Maturation for 12 months in 70 hl Slavonian oak casks.
