TASTING NOTES

Colour: Intense ruby red.

Aroma: Bouquet of ripe red berry fruits.

Taste: Well balanced with good structure and length, and intense berry fruit and spice flavours.

Food: Very food friendly, this pairs well with grilled meats and robust pasta dishes.

AWARDS & ACCOLADES

2022 ~ 90 Points. "Cherries and hibiscus highlight the wine's aroma. The palate feels black fruited with ash and crunchy underripe fruit. Tannins feel sharpened and firm as the wine finishes, then it gets joined alongside an easy going acidity." - Michael Laudenslager - Wine Enthusiast, Aug/2026

OTHER INFO

Poggio al Tufo is a 66-hectare estate in the south of Tuscany, owned by the Tommasi family, one of the world's foremost Amarone producers, founded in 1902. The wine is grown in the Rompicollo vineyard, which has southern exposure, volcanic soils and is densely-planted to 6,500 vines per hectare.
